

Make it easy for your friends to find you!

IRB City Code states -

“All buildings shall be numbered by the correct street address using a block numeral at a minimum height size of three inches. These numerals shall be placed on the wall of the building which faces the street named in the address and such numerals must be in clear view from the street”.

